CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY

November 8, 1978

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

Let me express again, in writing, my appreciation for the importance of the meeting of presidents that you convened at the Central Intelligence Agency, and also for the contribution of time and interest made by you and your senior colleagues. If I can be of any further assistance in improving relations between the academic community and the necessary intelligence activities of the United States Government, please call on me.

I, too, enjoyed seeing you at the game; in fact, it was the only pleasant moment I had in a very long afternoon.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
